

Kyocera Production Career Launch

May 2019

A Technician Apprenticeship with Kyocera is a great way to learn about new technology, gain job skills, and join a great team . Apprentices work part-time (25-29 hours/week) while going to school full-time pursuing a degree that will prepare them to advance from part-time production support to a full-time career as a production or process technician at an accelerated pace.

Overview:

- Hours/week: Under 30/week.
- Schedule will shift depending on coursework at Clark College.\Salary: Start at $13-15/hour
- Ideal candidates are interested in a long-term career in production where they work with equipment, problem solve, and take machines apart.
- Benefits:
  - Tuition reimbursement and alternate schedule to accommodate school coursework
  - 401(k) retirement plan
  - Paid vacation and holidays
  - advancement opportunities
  - Access to employee Garden and employee events

Application Process:

- Selected candidates
  - Must complete drug screening and criminal background check
  - Must complete application to Clark College